SYNOPSIS

The initial Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) investigation casebook, regarding this investigation, was submitted and approved. After the final review of the casebook, it was determined additional, and more detailed information was needed regarding Involved Employee Deputy Daniel Eifert's actions.

ADDENDUM SUMMARY

Involved Deputy Eifert was re-interviewed on March 5, 2019, at 0830 hours, by IAB investigators. IAB investigators asked Deputy Eifert to provide more detail as to why he shot at the suspect. Deputy Eifert stated he was "scared" the suspect was going to attack him. Deputy Eifert further stated the front door [redacted]

IAB investigators also asked Deputy Eifert to explain the phone call he made to [redacted] Police Department after the shooting. Specifically, why he did not tell [redacted] Police he was involved in a shooting. Deputy Eifert stated he had never been in a shooting before, and was shocked. [redacted]

Witness Lieutenant Kristin Aloma [redacted], was interviewed by IAB investigators on February 27, 2019, at 0729 hours.

IAB Note: Lieutenant Aloma was the Operations Lieutenant at Metrolink Bureau at the time of the shooting.

Lieutenant Aloma stated at the time of the notification, Metrolink Bureau did not have a Watch Commander. She was the Operations Lieutenant and Watch Commander for the unit [Transcripts page 2]. Lieutenant Aloma stated she received a phone call from Deputy Eifert the morning of the incident. Deputy Eifert told her he had been involved in an off duty incident, where he shot at a suspect [Transcripts page 2]. Lieutenant Aloma ultimately responded to [redacted] home, and met IAB investigators.
